While answering the L.C.Q.No.159 (3613) on the Floor of the Council on 23.3.2010, the Minister for B.C.Welfare assured the House that necessary steps would be taken to release of "Scholarships to Backward Classes Community Lawyers".

2. There is a scheme of "Administration of Justice" being implemented in every District and under this scheme every year (4) B.C. Advocates are selected by a Committee headed by the District Collector. The selected candidates are attached to the District Courts to work under the Government Pleaders/Public Prosecutors for the intensive training for (3) years period. During the training period each trainee will be paid an amount of Rs.500/- per month towards Stipend for (3) years and Rs.585/- towards enrolment fee and Rs.3000/- for purchase of Law Books and furniture etc., for only once. An amount of Rs.10.00 lakhs was already released to all the District B.C.Welfare Officers towards subsidy to B.C. Advocates undergoing training in Administration of Justice for the year 2010-11. (Copy of proceedings No.E2/4018/2008, dated 21.9.2010 is enclosed)

3. In view of the above, the assurance may be treated as implemented.

HIRALAL SAMARIAYA,
PRINCIPAL SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT.
